

BIOGRAPHY

Haley Augur joined CDQ in 2020 after graduating cum laude from Arizona State University Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law. During law school, Haley clerked for the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services' Office of General Counsel in Washington D.C. as well as for CDQ. She also worked at the Center for Public Health Law and Policy, where she aided public health leaders locally and nationally on a broad range of emerging issues, focusing primarily on developing legal strategies for combating the opioid epidemic. Haley also served as Articles Editor for Jurimetrics: The Journal of Law, Science, & Technology and co-founded the Corporate & Business Law Journal serving as Managing Editor during its inaugural year. She was the recipient of accolades such as CALI Excellence for the Future Awards in Law, Science, & Technology and Health Law, Pro Bono Highest Distinction, and Willard H. Pedrick Scholar for her academic performance.

EDUCATION

Arizona State University
Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law
J.D., cum laude, 2020

Barrett, The Honors College,
Arizona State University, Tempe, AZ
B.S., summa cum laude, Psychology; Pre-med; Professional Sales & Marketing Certificate, May 2017

BAR ADMISSION

Arizona

PUBLICATIONS

Constitutional Cohesion & the Right to Public Health, 53 U. MICH. J.L. REFORM (fall 2019), co-author

Innovative Law & Policy Responses to the Opioid Crisis, 47 J.L. MED. & ETHICS 173 (2019), co-author

Exploring Legal & Policy Responses to Opioids: America's Worst Public Health Emergency, 70 S.C. L. REV. 481 (2019), co-author

Federal Court Recognizes State Employment Protections for Medical Cannabis Patients, THE NETWORK FOR PUBLIC HEALTH LAW (2018)