

BIOGRAPHY

CINDY C. ALBRACHT-CROGAN joined CDQ in 2000 and was named a partner in 2009. Cindy practices in the areas of commercial litigation and ADR. She has repeatedly been named as one of the top litigators in Arizona, including multiple recognitions as one of the best women lawyers in the state. Cindy is very active in the American Bar Association, where she was for several years the Co-Chair of the Section of Litigation Solo & Small Firm Committee, Co-Chair of the Task Force on Solo & Small Firm Outreach and a member of the Young Litigator Task Force. Cindy currently is Regional Co-Chair (Phoenix) for the Section's Judicial Intern Opportunity Program (JIOP), whose mission is to work together to provide opportunities to students that are traditionally underrepresented in the legal profession. Cindy has also served as an instructor for the National Institute of Trial Advocacy's deposition program and on the faculty of the Litigation Institute for Trial Training programs. Cindy practices commercial litigation.
