

BIOGRAPHY

REBECCA van DOREN joined CDQ in 1999. Following law school, Rebecca served as law clerk to the Honorable Eddward Ballinger in the Maricopa County Superior Court and the Honorable E.G. Noyes in the Arizona Court of Appeals. She has served a a four-year term on the State Bar Committee on Examinations, and has served as a judge pro tem for the Maricopa County Superior Court. In 2023, Rebecca retired from the full-time practice of law, but she remains Of Counsel to the firm on a part-time basis, focusing on higher education litigation and appellate work as well as general commercial litigation.

EDUCATION

Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law
Arizona State University
J.D., cum laude, 1998

Arizona State University
B.S. Justice Studies, 1985

BAR ADMISSION

Arizona

Vermont

United States District Courts:

- District of Arizona
- District of Vermont
- Northern District of New York

Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals

United States Supreme Court

PUBLICATIONS

"Daubert Opinion Requires Judges to Screen Scientific Evidence," Journal of Pediatrics, November 2006.

NEWS

CDQ Wins Partial Summary Judgment In Title IX Case
District Court Affirms Bankruptcy Court's Dismissal of $300 Million Adversary Complaint
CDQ Obtains Summary Judgment Ruling
CDQ Obtains Dismissal Of Discrimination Lawsuit
Rebecca van Doren Appointed as Judge Pro Tem
CDQ Obtains Dismissal Of Adversary Proceeding
CDQ Attorneys Secure Dismissal of Title IX Lawsuit
Court of Appeals Affirms Multi-Million Dollar Award For CDQ's Clients
Superior Court Awards Judgment and Attorneys' Fees to CDQ Client
CDQ Obtains Ruling Invalidating Multiple Restrictive Covenants

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Rebecca has served as a volunteer judge pro tem, a position which helps to relieve the burden on Maricopa County Superior Court judges by taking on certain tasks such as conducting settlement conferences and serving as a discovery master. Rebecca and her husband, Jason, have hosted multiple foreign exchange students, welcoming students from China, Brazil and Germany for year-long stays in their home. Jason is also a volunteer for the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office Animal Safe Haven.